

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 9, to Saturday May 13, 1758.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 8th Day of May 1758,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Ninth of March last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Twentieth Day of this Instant May;—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirtieth Day of June next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Admiralty Office, May 13.

In Pursuance of the King's Pleasure, Lord Anson, Vice-Admiral of Great Britain, and Admiral of the White, was this Day appointed Commander in Chief of a Fleet now fitting for the Sea.

Admiralty-Office, May 13.

On the 26th of last Month, His Majesty's Ship the Windfor, of 60 Guns, commanded by Capt. Faulkner, with the Escorte Frigate, were sent from Plymouth, in order to intercept two French Frigates, and three Storeships under their Convoy, which sailed a few Days before from Dunkirk Road to the Westward. On the 27th towards Noon, about 16 Leagues from the Ramhead, Capt. Faulkner was in Sight of them, when the two Frigates brought to in a Line, as if they intended to receive him, and the Storeships continued standing to the Westward. When the Windfor came within about two Gun Shot of the Frigates, they made all the Sail they could towards the Coast of France: Upon which Capt. Faulkner sent the Escorte after the Storeships, while he gave Chace to the Frigates, and continued it till Four in the Afternoon; when finding they greatly outailed him, he gave it over, and made after their Convoy, which could then but just be discerned from the Poop. The next Morning at Day-light, only one of them was to be seen, which the Windfor came up with and took. She is called the St. Peter, of near 400 Tuns Burthen, and her Cargo consisted of Provisions, and 1000 Stand of Arms, intended for Quebec. Another of these Storeships was fallen in with the same Day by a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships to the Westward, commanded by Capt. Pratten, and was taken by Capt. Douglas in the Alcide. She is called the Baden, is about the same Size with the other, and loaded with Provisions.

On the 29th, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, Capt. Pratten seeing a Sail to the S. W. made a Signal for the Dorsetshire, of 70 Guns, and 520 Men, commanded by Captain Denis, to give Chace; and soon after observing the Chace to be a large Ship, dispatched the Achilles, of 60 Guns, commanded by the Honourable Captain Barrington, also after her, and then followed them with the rest of the Squadron. About Seven o'Clock the Dorsetshire came up with the Chace, which proved to be the Raisonable, a French Ship of War of 64 Guns, and 630 Men, and Capt. Denis began to engage her very closely, and they continued warmly engaged till about Nine o'Clock, when the Enemy's Ship, commanded by the Prince de Mombazon, Chevalier de Rohan, struck, having suffered greatly in her Hull, and had 61 Men killed, and 100 wounded. She was going from l'Orient to Brest, a new Ship, not above four or five Months off the Stocks. The Dorsetshire's Masts, Yards, and Sails, were greatly shattered. She had 15 Men killed, and 21 wounded, in the Action; and one of the Wounded is since dead.

Advice is received from Rear Admiral Boderick, who was on his Passage to the Mediterranean, that, on the 13th of last Month, in the Latitude of 48:00, His Majesty's Ship the Prince George, of 80-Guns, in which the Rear Admiral hoisted his Flag, took Fire at Half an Hour after One in the Afternoon, and after burning down to the Water's Edge, the Remnant of her sunk at a little before Six in the Evening. The Rear Admiral says, he could not then give a particular Account of the People who were on board her, being about 780; but he feared the Number lost far exceeded the Number saved.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.
WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

ERRATUM.

In the List of Officers in last Tuesday's Gazette, dele Major William Farquhar to be Lieut. Colonel to the 15th Regiment of Foot.

Whitehall, May 2, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That in the Night-time, between the 27th and 28th of April last, the Shop of Peter Mason, Linnen-draper, the Corner of the Great Piazza, Covent-Garden, was broken open, and robbed of Linnen Drapery Goods and Stockings to the Value of 400 l. and upwards; in order to the apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned therein, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a further Encouragement, the said Peter Mason does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

Peter Mason.

Whitehall, May 13, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Monday the 10th of April last, about Eight o'Clock at Night, the Dwelling House of the Rev. Mr. Cock, at Debden, in the County of Essex, was entered by four Men armed, who robbed him of Money and Plate to the Amount of near Fifty Pounds; in order to the apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned therein, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a further Encouragement, I Richard Chifwell, of Debden aforesaid, Esq; do promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Persons, who committed the said Robbery.

Richard Chifwell.

Admiralty Office, May 6, 1758.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrent Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Chèque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearn, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May Instant; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Instant, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

General Post Office, May 5, 1758.

Whereas divers Persons, through Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into this Office, as also into the Post Offices both in Town and Country, that are directed on Board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying, at the same Time, the legal Postage for the same; and whereas Letters and Packets, are frequently put into the said Offices, which contain Money, Rings, or other Things of the like Nature; This is to give Notice, that no Letter or Packet whatsoever, under the above Circumstances, can, for the Time to come, be forwarded from hence, or from any other Post Office in the Kingdom.

N. B. Letters to Holland and Flanders are forwarded without any Foreign Postage demanded here, but if they are sent from the Country the Inland Postage must be paid to London.

By Order of His Majesty's Postmaster General.

Geo. Shelvocke.

Navy Office, April 29, 1758.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy in the Month of November 1757, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.

Victualling Office, May 10, 1758.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 24th Instant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for Oxen for Fresh Meat for His Majesty's Ships at Portsmouth for three Months, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy, to commence from the 31st Instant.

Trinity House London, May 10, 1758.

Notice is hereby given, that the Mapling Beacon is replaced a Cable's Length from the Edge of the Channel in six Feet at low Water Spring Tides, with the following Bearings, viz.

The Whitaker Beacon, North East by North,

Blacktail Beacon, West South West;

And that the White Buoy which laid near the Beacon will be taken away.

May 8, 1758.

Publick Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees of Wadesmill Turnpike Roads in the County of Hertford, are appointed to meet at the George Inn at Buntingford, in the said County, on Thursday the 1st Day of June next, at Ten in the Forenoon.

Bos. Toller, Clerk to the said Trustees.

SALISBURY

SALISBURY RACES.

ON Wednesday the 28th of June will be Run for, on the Course near Salisbury, His Majesty's Plate of One Hundred Guineas, by any Horse, Mare or Gelding, being no more than six Years old. If any Disputes arise, they are to be determined by the Earl of Pembroke, or whom he shall appoint.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicts or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Poulneis or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleet, are absolutely cured.

N. B. The Electuary is sold only by the Author as above-mentioned. Beware of Counterfeits.

FOR a satisfactory Gratuity, and on certain Terms of Agreement, I have revealed and disclosed to Mr. Richard Guy, of Mark Lane, London, Surgeon, (on Oath before one of the Masters in the High Court of Chancery,) the Remedy or Medicine for many Years so successfully used by myself, Father, and Grandfather, for the Cure of CANCERS; the Efficacy of which is well known. Not doubting but this valuable Medicine will be more generally used, and become more extensively beneficial, assisted by the Judgment of a regular and experienced Surgeon.

HENRY PLUNKETT.

N. B. Letters or Messuages may be directed for me, to be left at Mr. Guy's aforesaid.

Lord Friday the 28th of April, in the 31st Year of the Keeper. Reign of his Majesty King George the Second,
1758, Between Jane Clays, by John Clays her
Husband, and next Friend, Plaintiff; Elizabeth
Stiles and others, Defendants.

FOR as much as this Court was this present Day informed by Mr. Lucas, being of the Plaintiff's Council, that the Plaintiff, on the 10th of December 1757, filed their Bill into this Court against the Defendants, as by the Six Clerks Certificate appears, and took out a Process of Subpoena, returnable in eight Days of St. Hillary now last past, requiring them to appear to and answer the same, but the Defendant Elizabeth Stiles hath not so done, that upon Inquiry, the said Defendant Elizabeth Stiles cannot be found in order to be served with such Process, but absconds in order not to be served therewith, as by Affidavit also appears, and the said Certificate and Affidavit being read, this Court doth order that the said Defendant Elizabeth Stiles do appear to the Plaintiff's Bill on or before the 1st Day of next Term.

Easter Term, 31st King George 2d.

WHEREAS the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice, and the rest of the Judges of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, have thought fit this Term for the better Regulation of the Attorneys, to make a Rule of Court, ordering every Attorney who has been admitted of the said Court, to pay and discharge his Arrears of Termage to the Clerk of the Warrants, or his Deputy for the Time being, on or before the 1st Day of Michaelmas Term next, and afterwards shall pay his said Termage to the said Clerk of the Warrants, or his Deputy, before the first Day of Michaelmas Term in every subsequent Year. The Clerk of the Warrants thinks it necessary to give this publick Notice to the said Attorneys, least for Want of Information they omit to comply with the said Order, and thereby subject themselves to the Inconveniencies that may attend the Omission thereof. Nath. Rowe, Clerk of the Warrants.
